What Kind Of Dog Is That?

Service Dog
- ADA Covered: Right to accompany a person into public establishments
- Needs to tolerate a wide variety of environments, people & situations
- Specifically trained in skills to assist ONLY one person
- HUD Housing: May live with person even if “No Pet” policy is in place
- Provides emotional support to people through companionship
- Provides support & comfort to multiple people

Therapy Dog
- ADA Covered: Right to accompany a person into public establishments
- Needs to tolerate a wide variety of environments, people & situations
- Specifically trained in skills to assist ONLY one person
- HUD Housing: May live with person even if “No Pet” policy is in place
- Provides emotional support to people through companionship
- Provides support & comfort to multiple people

Emotional Support
- ADA Covered: Right to accompany a person into public establishments
- Needs to tolerate a wide variety of environments, people & situations
- Specifically trained in skills to assist ONLY one person
- HUD Housing: May live with person even if “No Pet” policy is in place
- Provides emotional support to people through companionship
- Provides support & comfort to multiple people

WWW.ADA.GOV

CREATED FOR USE BY CANINES FOR SERVICE